

THE DAILY DIVOT AN ANNUAL PULICATION

Summer '15

What was wrong with the 2015 golf season? The short answer is, NUTTIN! Yeah, we had the normal lingering cool weather back in April & May but from Memorial Day on it was a pretty nice season, lots of nice days without too many air-conditioner days. No real prolonged dry spells. Wrapping it all up with maybe the nicest fall that we've ever had. (yes, there were golfers out on Christmas day!) From The Tamaracks point of view, LET'S DO THAT ONE AGAIN!!

P.O.Y.

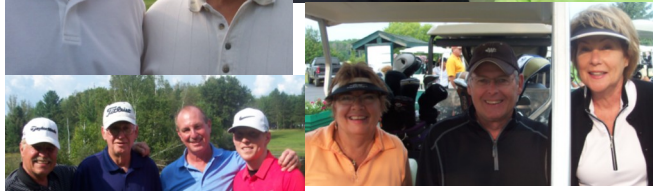

The 2014 Player of the Year was won by Lee Bobo by what at first appeared as a landslide!! Upon further review, all the ballots with nearly identical handwriting (that looked like Lee's) were disqualified. In the end he won by a single vote! Congratulations Lee, keep it going!!

Scramble for Kids

"THE DIRECTOR" That's what I call Linda DeLong. Again this year she put together the Scramble for Kids tournament to raise funds to benefit a multitude of area kids programs. We were lucky enough to get a beautiful day and have lots of fun.

Maybe you noticed the new brick and tie work along the tenth tee and the Baby Lawn by the clubhouse. These and some additional projects that are "shovel ready" were made possible by our "Friends of the Tamaracks". Those of you that played or donated to the Brad Van Pelt One Person

Thanks Friends!!

Scramble are the only reason that projects like these can go forward.

If you get the chance to play in this years One Person Scramble, I know that you'll have fun , and it really helps us out. Thank you again to our many friends, we love you!!

Linda and her crew did a great job. Because her heart makes up 85% of her body weight, Linda is not only helping local kids organizations with the KIDS SCRAMBLE, but she is forming a new scramble this year to benefit underprivileged animals at the Clare County Shelter. Let's try to support her efforts. She never sits still!!!

North South Couples

scum suckin losers...

Dynasties never last forever. Alas, not only did the Firefly squad use their age to their benefit, but they also were forced to pay the luxury tax for going over the salary cap, and illegal recruiting. The North Couples suffered their first loss since 2009. As with any losing team, criticism was quickly directed at the team captain, even going as far as accusations of bowing to political pressure. Captain Spike pointed out the sparkling record of he and his partner Trena, and the fact that his own daughter Megan contributed the only Hole in One in tournament history. Rebuilding the team to its former proud self will be foremost with team ownership in 2016.

Hooky Bowl

The future is now!! This years Hooky Bowl featured an exciting 4 hole sudden death playoff pitting the young boys (Joel, Bret, Zach, & Sam) against the mid-life/old boys (Jeffy, 72 year old Chet, Mark, and Chet's grandson Chaz) In the end youth and stamina defeated age and booze.

The equally youthful Tama Team also tied for first, but didn't make it to the playoff tee in time.

The Tra-hookers

Quote of the Year
“Elevators smell differently to midgets.”

Sam Kinderman plays every day. His team at Mt. P. Sacred Heart won their Districts and got to play at the State Competition. Sam will be a Senior this Spring. Go Sam!!
